

R E M A R K S

Claims 1, 3, 5, 6 and 8-10 are pending in this application and stand ready for further action on the merits. Claims 1 and 6 have been amended to recite the subject matter of cancelled claims 2 and 7, respectively.

No new matter has been added by way of the above amendment.

Issues under 35 U.S.C. 103

Claims 1, 3-6 and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamagishi et al. US 5,967,908 (hereinafter the '908 patent) in view of Yamagishi et al. US 5,779,563 (hereinafter the '563 patent).

Applicants respectfully submit that the presently claimed invention is not made obvious by the combination of the '908 patent and the '563 patent. However, in order to advance prosecution, claims 1 and 6 have been amended to recite the subject matter of claims not currently under rejection, i.e., claims 2 and 7, respectively. Accordingly, this rejection has been rendered moot.

Double Patenting

Claims 1-3 and 5-10 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-5 of co-pending Application No.

10/373,100 (the '100 application) in view of the '563 patent. Applicants respectfully traverse the rejection.

Applicants maintain the position that the present invention is not obvious over the claims of the '100 Application, in view of the unexpectedly superior properties of the polyurethane elastomer component in the cover material which is not recited in the '100 Application. However, in order to advance prosecution, Applicants have attached hereto a Terminal Disclaimer (TD) over the '100 Application.

In legal principle, the filing of a TD simply serves the statutory function of removing the rejection of obviousness-type double patenting, and does not raise a presumption on the merits of the rejection. It is improper to view the simple expedient of "obviation" as an admission or acquiescence on the merits. Ortho Pharmaceutical Corp. v. Smith, 22 USPQ2d 1119, 1124 (Fed. Cir. 1992) citing Quad Env'tl. Technologies Corp. v. Union Sanitary Dist., 946 F.2d 870, 874, 20 USPQ2d 1392, 1394-95 (Fed. Cir. 1991).

Accordingly, this rejection is rendered moot.
